Some alumni of the ICAL programme will share their experiences in the programme, living and learning in Stockholm, and their subsequent careers. Professors from the programme, lawyers from the sponsoring law firms, and representatives from the SCC and CIETAC will provide information about East-West arbitration, the ICAL programme and working with international arbitration and commercial law.

The event will include a reception, where you can meet the representatives from Sweden and China, and discuss studying and working in this vibrant field. You can also gain information about the scholarships and application process for the ICAL programme.

The event is free of charge but registration is required. Please submit this Registration Form. Please note that space is limited and places will be allocated on the first-come basis.

If you have any questions, please contact Fabricio Fortese at master@juridicum.su.se
